iCafe de Paris

ICON Park, Orlando, FL

If you're out late and in the mood for sweets, then you will love this place. Open until midnight, or later depending on the night, this cafe serves amazing desserts like Nutella crepes, macarons, and assorted pastries. Beyond all the sweets, you can also get pizza, sandwiches and more. Pair any of those with a coffee, cocktail, or beer while you sit on the patio and enjoy the view, and you're set for a great night!

Miller's Ale House

Orlando, FL

Conveniently close to the convention center and with a ton of TVs, Miller's Ale House is an easy favorite of mine. They have a great selection of beer, and the food portions will satisfy anyone. So, after a long day at NPE, I can count on Miller's as the perfect place to relax, kick my feet up, grab a bite to eat, and watch a game.

La Cava del Tequila

Epcot, Lake Buena Vista, FL

If you're in Orlando and make your way to Disney's Epcot, you'll have to stop by the Mexico Pavilion and swing inside to visit La Cava del Tequila. Located right below the main stairway entrance, this exclusive and tiny tequila bar houses some of the most prestigious tequilas you'll find anywhere in Florida. My favorite is their avocado margaritas, which are indescribably good! They may look like a melted shamrock shake but pair it with some guacamole and chips, and you'll be in avocado heaven!

Avocado Mexican Grill

Celebration, FL

If you want to escape the touristy Orlando area, located a little way to the south is Avocado Mexican Grill in Celebration, Florida. When I've had my fill of Disney and Orlando, I make the trip down to taco heaven. They have some seriously tasty Mexican food with a fresh twist, and their guac is on a whole different level. Whether you're in the mood for some classic tacos or want to try something new, their menu has you covered. Plus, the vibe is super chill and perfect for hanging out with friends or family. So, grab a table, enjoy the view and dig into some delicious food!

Bad As's Sandwiches

Primrose, Orlando, FL

If you want to try some place different that isn't a chain – you've got to try Bad As's Sandwiches on Primrose Drive. This is an inexpensive sandwich shop that is known for amazing unique flavor and custom sandwiches you've likely never experienced anywhere else. They say that sandwiches are the ultimate comfort food – Bad As's Sandwiches will NOT disappoint.

Kres Chophouse

Orlando, FL

If you're in downtown Orlando and looking for a nice place to unwind and recharge, Kres Chophouse is the place to be! Picture this: mouthwatering steaks cooked to perfection and a vibe that's both upscale and inviting. Whether you're a steak lover or craving some fresh seafood, their menu's got you covered. Beyond the food - the ambiance is classy yet cozy, making it a truly memorable place to visit. Trust me, you won't want to miss out on this culinary gem in Orlando!

Fun

Drive Shack

Orlando, FL

Located close to the airport, Drive Shack is very similar to Top Golf. It's a great place to go regardless of the weather to get in those practice swings. With a great interactive driving range, good food and drinks, golf simulation games, darts, and shuffleboard; they have something for everyone. I recommend grabbing some food and drinks while challenging your friends to a driving competition!

Real Florida Adventures - Air Boat Tour

Orlando, FL

Florida's marshes are perfect for air boats, and there's no better sensation than flying across the water. If you're looking for an exhilarating experience like no other, I recommend visiting one of the many air boat tours located around the Orlando area. Real Florida Adventure has many options to entertain, but nothing matches the speed and sound of skimming across the water with a motor-driven propeller feet from your back! And you're almost guaranteed to see alligators.
